insert begin Special meetings[insert end]

insert begin A special meeting may be called by the President or a majority of the board or a board committee with less than ten days notice for one of the following purposes if compliance with the ten-day requirement would impose substantial hardship or immediate action is required to protect the public interest for any of the following reasons:[insert end]

insert begin to consider issuance of a legal opinion:[insert end]

insert begin to consider its response to a confidential final draft audit report from the Bureau of State Audits:[insert end]

Notice must also be posted on the State Bar Web site. The notice must comply with Rule 6.51 (A)(1).[insert end]

insert begin At the commencement of a special meeting, the board or board committee in open session must make a finding, supported by specific facts, that the delay necessitated by providing a ten-day notice would cause substantial hardship or that immediate action is required to protect the public interest. The finding must be adopted by a two-thirds vote if all members are present, or by a unanimous vote if fewer are present, a unanimous vote of the members present. The finding must be posted on the State Bar Web site. Failure to adopt the finding terminates the meeting.[insert end]

[insert begin] (B) Emergency meetings[insert end]

[insert begin] (1) In the case of an emergency requiring prompt action due to the disruption or threatened disruption of public facilities, the board or a board committee may hold an emergency meeting without complying with the notice requirements of these rules, provided that[insert end]

insert begin all media routinely contacted are provided notice by telephone no less than an hour before the meeting; and[insert end]

insert begin the notice is posted on the State Bar Web site as soon as possible after the decision to call the emergency meeting has been made.[insert end]

insert begin work stoppage or other activity that severely impairs public health or safety; or.[insert end]

[insert begin]Rule 6.53 Conditions to attendance; audio or video recording of proceedings; opportunity for public address[insert end]

insert begin Attendees at a meeting of the board or board committee must comply with standard building security procedures, but otherwise no person may be required, as a condition of admission to the meeting room, to register his or her name, provide other information, complete a questionnaire, or otherwise fulfill any condition precedent to attendance. If an attendance list, register or similar document is circulated or posted, it must state clearly that completion of the document is voluntary and not required.[insert end]

[insert begin] (B) Any person attending a board or board committee meeting has the right to record the proceedings unless the board or board committee reasonably finds that the recording cannot be made without a persistent disruption of the proceedings.[insert end]

insert begin The State Bar must provide an opportunity for members of the public to directly address the board or a board committee on each agenda item. This requirement is not applicable if the item has already been considered by the board or board committee at a public meeting where the public was afforded the opportunity to address the committee regarding the item, unless the item has been substantially changed since that meeting. The State Bar may establish reasonable conditions for public comment such as its place on the agenda and the time allocated for any and all speakers. The State Bar may not prohibit public criticism of its policies, programs or services. Nothing in this rule confers any privilege or protection for expression beyond that otherwise provided by law. This provision does not apply to closed sessions of the board or board committees.[insert end]

insert begin For purposes of these rules, "meeting" includes any gathering of a majority of the members of the Board of Governors or board committee at the same time and place to hear, discuss, or deliberate upon any item that is within the jurisdiction of the board or board committee, except for: [insert end]

insert begin the attendance of a majority of the members of the board at a board committee meeting, if those who are not members of the committee attend, but do not vote.[insert end]

insert begin Except as permitted by these rules or by law, meetings of the Board of Governors and board committees must be conducted openly where the public may attend and hear the discussions. A majority of the board or a majority of a board committee is prohibited from otherwise discussing in person, by the use of technology, or directly or indirectly by any other means, matters within the jurisdiction of the board or board committee.[insert end]

insert begin A meeting of the board or a board committee may be conducted by teleconference, provided the public may call in to the teleconference or listen to the teleconference at the San Francisco and Los Angeles offices of the State Bar. Votes taken during a teleconference meeting must be by roll call.[insert end]

insert begin If a meeting is willfully disrupted and order cannot be restored, the disruptive individuals may be removed and the meeting continue. [insert end]

insert begin The Secretary must keep confidential minutes and records of the closed sessions.[insert end]

Any person may receive a printed copy of these records upon request and payment of reasonable fees for the cost of reproduction and mailing. Nothing in this rule requires disclosure of records for which disclosure is exempt or prohibited by law.[insert end]

insert begin Any recording of an open meeting made under these rules will be available for inspection for up to thirty days after the date of recording.[insert end]
