SUBJECT: California Rural Legal Assistance - Appointment to Serve on Board of Directors

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Periodically, the State Bar of California is called upon to appoint representatives to the Boards of certain multi-county, federally funded legal services programs in California. The Board of Trustees Policy Manual section 4.15.3 authorizes the Board to appoint representatives to serve on boards of directors of programs funded by the Legal Services Corporation.

Under the bylaws of the California Rural Legal Assistance (CRLA), the State Bar appoints directors to the CRLA Board of Directors, who serve three-year terms. CRLA requests two appointments and six reappointments to its board.

CRLA and staff recommend the following appointments to one three-year term: Michael Bracamontes, Peter Carson, and Nicole Philips.

CRLA and staff recommend the following reappointments to one three-year term: Alejandro Delgado, Anthony LoPresti, David Martinez, Camille Pannu, and Jacq Wilson.

BACKGROUND

Pursuant to federal regulations of the Legal Services Corporation (45 C.F.R. §1607 et seq.), the State Bar of California makes appointments to multi-county, federally funded legal services organizations upon their request and recommendation. The Board of Trustees Policy Manual section 4.15.3 authorizes the Board to appoint representatives to serve on boards of directors of programs funded by the Legal Services Corporation (LSC). The State Bar is in a position to help individual organizations reach out to a larger and more diverse pool of attorneys across county lines which in turn allows the organizations to attract stronger candidates, and ultimately ensures the organizations have better governance and are more effective delivering legal services to low-income Californians.

Staff has developed a new process to manage the appointments process for LSC-funded organizations. The new process anticipates a six-month timeline from the organization's initial request to the Board for appointment. The legal aid organization's request for appointments must provide relevant appointment information such as current vacancies, member requirements, and term limits, which are posted on the State Bar website and social media. Interested applicants have 30 days to apply directly with the organization. Based on applications received, the organization submits a list of appointment recommendations to the State Bar. The Board then reviews the recommendations, taking into consideration the applicant's professional experience, familiarity with legal aid and access to justice issues, and as with all State Bar appointments, diversity of applicants and the legal aid organization's board.

CRLA is a nonprofit legal services organization that serves low-income individuals residing in 23 California counties, with increasing reach in additional counties.¹ While CRLA maintains specialized programs that focus on services for farmworker populations, CRLA serves an array of clients including individuals with disabilities, immigrant populations, school children, LGBT populations, seniors, and individuals with limited English proficiency.

CRLA's current 45-member board is comprised of eight State Bar appointed attorneys, 15 County Bar appointed attorneys, 15 client members and seven other members. For the 2020 State Bar appointments, CRLA received nine applications for eight vacancies. CRLA recommends appointing three new members and reappointing five members to its Board. Two of the five reappointments are for second terms; two are for third terms; and the third is for reappointment after a break from board service. Current CRLA board members may serve up to three consecutive terms, but may be reappointed again after a one-year break following their third term. If approved, those members would each serve a three-year term, effective at the close of the July 2020 Board meeting.

DISCUSSION

State Bar staff has reviewed CRLA's appointment recommendations to confirm each applicant's skills, experience, and perspectives in relation to both CRLA's mission and the State Bar's strategic goals and objectives.

According to Article IV. 4.01(A)(1) of CRLA’s bylaws, “the members of the Board must support CRLA’s mission and have an interest and knowledge of delivery of ‘quality legal services to the poor’ must reasonably reflect the interests of eligible clients; and must reasonably reflect the diversity of attorneys and potential clients in CRLA’s service area.” In addition, section 4.2 of the Board Policy Manual provides that the Board should “seek to ensure that the candidates and composition of the entities are inclusive and broadly representative of the diversity of California’s population.”

CRLA provided the chart below describing the Board’s composition by gender, race/ethnicity, and appointing authority currently, and as it would look with the eight applicants for appointment or reappointment under consideration by the State Bar Board of Trustees today.

CRLA Board Composition (as reported by CRLA)

	State Bar Appointed Attorneys		County Bar Appointed Attorneys	Clients	Other	Total
	Current	Proposed				Current	Proposed
Male	6	6	7	13	4	30	30
Female	2	2	8	2	3	15	15
Caucasian	2	3	7	0	2	11	12
Hispanic	4	3	7	15	5	31	30
Black	1	1	1	0	0	2	2
Asian	1	1	0	0	0	1	1
Total	8	8	15	15	7	45	45

CRLA serves over 23 counties statewide. Below is an overview of the demographic data of: (1) California’s population as reported by the U.S. Census Bureau;² (2) California attorneys as reported by the 2019 State Bar attorney census;³ and (3) CRLA’s clients as reported by CRLA.⁴ Staff has compared these percentage compositions with CRLA’s current and proposed board.

Diversity Composition Comparisons

	California Population	California Attorneys	CRLA Clients	CRLA Board (Current)	CRLA Board (Proposed)
Male	49.7%	57%	39.7%	66.7%	66.7%
Female	50.3%	42%	59.6%	33.3%	33.3%
White or Caucasian	36.5%	68%	22.5%	24.4%	26.7%
Hispanic/Latino	39.4%	7%	62.6%	68.9%	66.7%
Black or African American	6.5%	4%	6.7%	4.4%	4.4%

² <https://www.census.gov/quickfacts/CA> (data reported as of 06/25/20)

³ <http://www.calbar.ca.gov/Portals/0/documents/BarBrief/Bar-Brief-1.pdf>

⁴ CRLA is a State Bar grantee and provides this information as part of annual reporting requirements.

Asian	15.5%	13%	1.9%	2.2%	2.2%
Native American and Other Pacific Islander	0.5%	Not Reported	2.3%	0%	0%
Two or More Races/Other	4.0%	4.0%	1.0%	Not Reported	Not Reported

Based on the data, people who identify as Hispanic/Latino are the most underrepresented in California’s attorney population, but are the largest represented group both in the state’s population and CRLA’s client population. While the proposed board composition would have one less Hispanic/Latino member, the overall Hispanic/Latino representation would still be two-thirds of the Board. Additionally, Mr. Wilson identifies as African American and Ms. Pannu identifies as Asian American. Their reappointments would maintain current diversity composition on CRLA’s board.

In terms of gender diversity, CRLA is heavily comprised of male members. Of the nine appointment applications received, only two candidates are female attorneys, and both are recommended by CRLA. Ms. Philips’s appointment and Ms. Pannu’s reappointment would maintain the ratio of one-third female representation on CRLA’s board. CRLA recognizes that its board would benefit from having additional gender diversity and is actively working to improve outreach efforts in this area.

The recommended candidates are all qualified to serve on CRLA’s board based on their legal experience, connection to the community, and in some cases, prior board service. The recommendation letter from CRLA, appointment applications, and resumes for the applicants are attached. A brief overview of each of the recommended applicants is listed below. Candidates are listed in alphabetical order, with applicants for new appointments listed first.

1. New Appointment: Michael Bracamontes

Michael Bracamontes is the founding Partner of Bracamontes & Vlasak, P.C., and CRLA reports that he was instrumental in directing cy pres funds to CRLA. Mr. Bracamontes has been an ambassador at several CRLA functions, has co-counseled with CRLA on housing and civil rights cases, and has presented at CRLA’s Annual Housing training/seminar.

2. New Appointment: Peter Carson

Peter Carson is a Partner at Sheppard Mullin and has been a supporter of CRLA since 2000. He has extensive pro bono experience, having represented CRLA on a pro bono basis during its merger of LSC grantees in Monterey and Ventura Counties, and is a member of Sheppard Mullin’s national pro bono committee, where he would be able to connect CRLA to pro bono resources. Mr. Carson also has leadership experience as a former board member of multiple organizations of other legal services nonprofits, including Bay Area Legal Aid and Earthjustice. Mr. Carson has also served on State Bar subentities, including various Section leadership roles and as cochair for the Legal Services Trust Fund Commission.

3. New Appointment: Nicole Philips

Nicole Philips is the Legal Director of Haitian Bridge Alliance, a nonprofit organization that advocates for fair and humane immigration policies and connects migrants with legal, social, and humanitarian services. CRLA believes that Ms. Philips' experience in strategic planning, fundraising, and governance of nonprofit organizations would be a valuable addition to its board.

4. Reappointment: Alejandro Delgado

Alejandro Delgado is a Partner at Weinberg, Roger & Rosenfeld, P.C., and has served on CRLA's Board of Directors since 2014. If reappointed, Mr. Delgado would be serving a third consecutive term. Mr. Delgado currently serves as an at-large member of CRLA's Board Executive Committee and is a member of both the Finance Committee and the Governance Committee. In addition, Mr. Delgado has expertise in labor and employment law and a dedicated commitment to social justice.

5. Reappointment: Anthony LoPresti

Anthony LoPresti is Deputy County Counsel for the County of Santa Clara and has served on CRLA's Board of Directors since 2016. If reappointed, Mr. LoPresti would be serving a second consecutive term. He is a member of CRLA's Board Executive Committee and of the Retirement Committee, where he participated in an overhaul of CRLA's staff retirement plan, resulting in a plan that better serves the organization's employees. Mr. LoPresti brings years of experience working in environmental justice and rural communities of color and has a commitment to social justice work.

6. Reappointment: David Martinez

David Martinez is a Partner at Robins Kaplan LLP and has served on CRLA's Board of Directors from 2008 through 2014. If reappointed, Mr. Martinez would be serving a nonconsecutive first term. During his time on the board, Mr. Martinez has participated as a member of the host committee of the CRLA's Los Angeles Tardeada, one of CRLA's major events that secure donations and sponsorships for the organization. According to CRLA, Mr. Martinez has also been recognized for his outstanding commitment to pro bono advocacy.

7. Reappointment: Camille Pannu

Camille Pannu is a Visiting Assistant Clinical Professor of Law at the University of California, Irvine, School of Law. Ms. Pannu has served on CRLA's Board of Directors since 2013. If reappointed, she would be serving a third consecutive term. Ms. Pannu currently serves as Vice President of the Board of Directors, where CRLA affirms her effective and strategic leadership. Ms. Pannu's background as a clinical professor of law and legal services attorney includes work with very low-income, rural communities in the areas of access to infrastructure, food security, and community development.

8. Reappointment: Jacq Wilson

Jacq Wilson is a Senior Litigation Attorney at Allan M. Schuman & Associates and has served on CRLA's Board of Directors since 2018. If reappointed, Mr. Wilson would be serving a second consecutive term. Mr. Wilson co-founded Advocates for Justice in Modesto, a nonprofit advocate organization created to fix school-discipline problem and disrupt the flow of students into the school-to-prison pipeline in Modesto city schools, and has expertise in rural education equity, which is one of CRLA's priority areas.

CRLA also received an application from Robert Sandoval, who was not recommended for appointment. CRLA staff indicated that one of the Board's goals is to strengthen its fundraising capacity and determined that other applicants had more experience in this area; however, CRLA staff was impressed with Mr. Sandoval's application and have reached out to him to become involved in other activities.

Given CRLA's reasoning and committed efforts related to board diversity, staff supports CRLA's recommended slate of appointment and reappointment candidates.

CRLA, Inc. Board of Directors - State Bar of California Appointee Recommendations

California Rural Legal Assistance, Inc.'s mission to fight for justice and individual rights alongside the most exploited communities of our society supports the State Bar of California's efforts to provide greater access to, and inclusion in, the legal system. The dedication of CRLA's Board of Directors is critical to the organization's success, and we thank the State Bar of California for considering our recommendations for Appointees to the CRLA Board of Directors.

New Appointment Recommendations

Peter Carson

Peter Carson has been a supporter and partner of CRLA for twenty years, starting in 2000, when he represented CRLA pro bono to manage the merger of LSC grantees in Monterey and Ventura Counties with CRLA.

A member of Sheppard Mullin's national pro bono committee, Peter has been instrumental in helping to connect CRLA with pro bono resources. In addition, he has secured a number of sponsorships from his firm and has served on CRLA's Northern California Fundraiser Host Committee.

Not only does Peter have a long history of commitment to CRLA, but he also brings deep experience serving on the boards of other high profile organizations, Bay Area Legal Aid and Earthjustice.

Nicole Phillips

Recommended by outgoing CRLA board member Susan Scott, Nicole offers a varied background in employment, immigration, housing, and human rights advocacy.

Nicole currently serves as Legal Director of Haitian Bridge Alliance, a non-profit organization that advocates for fair and humane immigration policies and connects migrants with legal, social, and humanitarian services, with a particular focus on black migrants, the Haitian community, women, LGBTQ individuals, and survivors of torture and other human rights abuses. Her experience in strategic planning, fundraising, and governance of nonprofit organizations will be a valuable addition of experience for CRLA's board.

Michael Bracamontes

Recently, Michael Bracamontes was instrumental in helping to have CRLA named as the recipient of cy pres funds. In addition, Michael is a CRLA donor and has acted as an ambassador at several CRLA functions. Michael's expression of interest in and inclination for fundraising make him a welcome addition.

Michael also offers legal expertise: he has co-counseled with CRLA on housing and civil rights cases and has presented at the CRLA Annual Housing training/seminar on multiple occasions.

Re-appointment Recommendations

Camille Pannu

An active and engaged member of CRLA's Board of Directors, Camille Pannu recently led a significant governance review and redrafting of the organization's bylaws. She has served as a member of the Board's Executive Committee for several years including chairing the Board's Committee on Long-Term and Financial Planning and its Audit Committee. Camille currently serves as Vice President of the Board of Directors, where she is an effective and strategic leader. In addition to her role on the Executive Committee, Camille also serves on the Governance Committee (Nominations sub-committee).

Her background as a clinical professor of law and legal services attorney includes work with very low-income, rural communities in the areas of access to infrastructure, food security, and community development. She brings extensive knowledge and experience in community-based organizations, social enterprises (nonprofits, LLCs, worker cooperatives, joint ventures), and water justice. As an Asian-American female, Camille helps to ensure diverse representation on the board.

Anthony LoPresti

Anthony LoPresti has served on CRLA's Board of Directors since 2016. He is a member of CRLA Board Executive Committee and of the Retirement Committee, where he participated in an overhaul of CRLA's staff retirement plan, resulting in a plan that better serves the organization's employees.

Anthony brings years of experience in environmental justice and rural communities of color and a commitment to social justice work.

Jacq Wilson

Jacq Wilson is one of the founders of the organization Advocates For Justice (AFJ), which was formed to disrupt the flow of students into the school-to-prison pipeline by reducing suspensions and expulsions in Modesto City Schools. Jacq offers expertise in rural education equity, one of CRLA's priority areas, and has collaborated extensively with CRLA's staff on education work.

As one of CRLA's African American board members, Jacq represents an important voice in the organization's effort to reflect the diverse constituents of rural California. Jacq currently serves on CRLA's Board Audit Committee and has acted as a spokesperson for the organization at fundraising events.

David Martinez

David Martinez has been friend and supporter of CRLA for over fifteen years, including more than a decade of board membership, substantial and consistent financial contributions, direct legal representation, and event planning and fundraising. He has been recognized by public and private entities for outstanding commitment to pro bono advocacy.

David has participated as a member of the host committee for CRLA's signature event, the Los Angeles Tardeada for several years. CRLA's Development staff relies on host committee members to leverage relationships to secure donations and sponsorships for the event. David has secured significant sponsorships from his firm, Robbins Kaplan, LLP.

Alejandro Delgado

A consistent donor himself, Alejandro last year joined the host committee for CRLA's signature event, the Los Angeles Tardeada. Alejandro also serves as an at-large member of CRLA's Board Executive Committee, and he is a member of both the Finance Committee and the Governance Committee. A partner at WEINBERG, ROGER & ROSENFELD, PC, one of the largest labor and employment law firms in the United States, Alejandro brings expertise in labor and employment law as well as a commitment to social justice.

Re: Application for Appointment to CRLA Board

Dear Ms. Yu:

Please accept my application for an appointment to CRLA's board. I have been a long-time admirer, supporter, and partner of CRLA. Representing the rural poor concerning housing, employment, and immigration matters is the type of legal work that conjures the noblest ideas of our profession. When I think of social justice warriors, CRLA is an organization that has been on the frontlines for many years.

I co-founded Bracamontes & Vlasak, P.C. almost twelve years ago. We are a San Francisco based law firm handling catastrophic injury, wrongful death, tenant law, fire litigation, police misconduct, and employment cases including discrimination and harassment claims under the FEHA. We have successfully handled large multi-tenant and class action cases involving carbon monoxide, fire, mold, and other habitability and tenant issues. Our firm was founded to provide victims of civil injustice with diligent and effective representation.

In addition to CRLA's mission aligning closely with my law firm's, there are personal reasons that also drive my desire to work with CRLA. My wife grew up in Tulare, California. Her father worked in the fields and became a farmer himself. So, although I was raised in Los Angeles, I have spent a considerable amount of time in the Central Valley. My commitment to social justice combined with the great need for competent legal services in rural California keeps me motivated to assist CRLA in any way that I can.

I have presented at the CRLA Annual Housing training/seminar on a couple of occasions. Our firm has co-counseled with CRLA on various housing and civil rights cases across California; from Santa Maria to Modesto. I have attended multiple CRLA functions and was recently fortunate enough to obtain a cy pres award for CRLA through a class action settlement.

I believe my experience as a civil rights attorney will be a valuable asset to CRLA and I look forward to working with CRLA in advancing the cause of justice.

In Solidarity,

- Admitted to practice in California, Federal District Court of California (Northern, Eastern, Central Districts), Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.

BRACAMONTES & VLASAK, P.C.

- Founding Partner, 2008 – Present
- Founded a plaintiff's litigation firm in San Francisco serving clients across the State. We focus on helping individuals in landlord-tenant, employment, and personal injury matters.
- Landlord/Tenant Cases: We have litigated single and multi-tenant cases involving exposure to mold, fire, carbon monoxide, uninhabitable premises, and dangerous conditions. We have been named lead counsel in a class action lawsuit brought on behalf of tenants at a dilapidated motel. We have handled wrongful evictions concerning fraudulent owner move-ins and tenant harassment. Co-counseled with California Rural Legal Assistance ("CRLA") on multiple cases, one involved the police evicting a family without due process and without a court order.
- Personal Injury Cases: Often our personal injury cases will overlap with the landlord/tenant cases. For example, we have handled cases involving anoxic brain injuries resulting from carbon monoxide exposure and serious physical injuries resulting from a landlord's failure to maintain the premises. We have also successfully resolved more traditional serious personal injury claims involving falls, motor vehicle accidents, and sexual assaults.
- Employment Cases: Primarily, our employment cases involve racial harassment/discrimination and sexual harassment and hostile work environment claims. We have litigated cases against large corporations and municipalities in both State and Federal court.

- Conducted multiple jury and bench trials including a recent jury trial brought against California Highway Patrol for their failure to obtain medical treatment for a 20-year-old man who ultimately died because of their negligence.

Re: Application for Appointment by the California State Bar Board of Trustees to the Board of Directors of California Rural Legal Assistance, Inc.

Dear Ms. Yu:

I was delighted when Jeff Ponting reached out to encourage me to apply for appointment by the State Bar to the CRLA board of directors as an attorney member. As you know, I have been a steadfast partner of CRLA, committed to its success and the success of its mission for more than two decades. While I have served on past CRLA advisory committees and working groups, including many years on the planning committee for the Northern California Tardeada, I have yet to serve CRLA as a board member. I would be honored if CRLA and the State Bar believe that I can make an important contribution to CRLA by serving a three year State Bar appointed term as an attorney member.

I have included my web bio from my law firm, Sheppard, Mullin, Richter & Hampton LLP, where I am a San Francisco based finance partner. The web bio lists many of my legal services and related community activities and leadership positions. Here also is a link to the page on the CRLA website entitled "Peter Carson: Shrinking the Justice Gap," which was prepared in connection with CRLA's 50th Anniversary and is used by CRLA to encourage financial and pro bono support - <https://www.crla.org/peter-carson-shrinking-justice-gap>.

My first significant involvement with CRLA came back in 2000. I had served for several years on the board of Neighborhood Legal Assistance Foundation, the LSC funded program that served San Francisco County. After a change in LSC policy led to an LSC decision to consolidate the LSC grants in the seven Bay Area counties, I led an eight law firm pro bono effort that merged existing grantee programs and created Bay Area Legal Aid (I then continued to serve BALA as treasurer and as a board member up until 2011). LSC then decided that its grants in Monterey and Ventura Counties should be consolidated into CRLA. On behalf of my then firm, Cooley LLP, I represented CRLA pro bono in connection with those consolidations, helping to bring both counties fully within the CRLA family.

At that point I became a committed supporter of CRLA, both personally and through my law firm. At Cooley, through 2003, and then at Bingham McCutchen LLP, 2003 – 2013, I chaired each firm's national pro bono committee and led each firm to not only become law firm contributors to CRLA but also to take on significant pro bono projects with CRLA. In addition, while at Bingham I persuaded the firm to fund Equal Justice Fellows at CRLA (the Salinas office) and the CRLA Foundation.

With the approaching demise of the Bingham firm, I joined Sheppard Mullin in 2013 where I now practice. As a member of the firm's national pro bono committee, I helped innovate successful projects to revamp and uplift both the firm's pro bono practice and its contribution program in support of legal services. Whereas Sheppard Mullin previously had no relationship with CRLA, the firm now is a committed financial contributor and a substantial provider of pro bono services both in Northern and Southern California (both directly and through referrals). I am delighted that Sheppard Mullin is requesting CRLA to be a featured pro bono client in this year's firm pro bono video.

It may help to highlight some of my additional legal services and public interest contributions. As a transactional lawyer I have served the ABA's Business Law Section in many leadership capacities, including for many years as the chair of the Section's Pro Bono Committee. Among other things, the Section awards the ABA's National Public Service Award, honoring business law pro bono. I continue to co-chair the selection of that award. I served three years as the Section's liaison to the ABA's Standing Committee on Pro Bono and Public Service before being appointed to the Standing Committee itself for a very active three year term that coincided with the national pro bono effort that arose to address Hurricane Katrina and its aftermath. I subsequently served on the ABA's Presidential Special Task Force on Civil Gideon.

I have also served the California State Bar in many leadership roles, including chairing committees of its Business Law Section and serving on the Section's Executive Committee (before the separation of the Sections into the California Lawyers Association – I continue to serve on the Section's Legal Opinions Committee). But relevant to this letter, in 2006 I was appointed to the California Legal Services Trust Fund Commission, serving as its co-Chair 2008-2010 through the depth of the financial crisis. I have had no greater experience familiarizing myself with the participants in the statewide legal services delivery and support system than I did during my years serving on the Commission.

As noted above, I served on the board of Bay Area Legal Aid (and its predecessor the Neighborhood Legal Assistance Foundation) until 2011. In that year, and as a graduate of UC Berkeley School of Law, I joined the board of the East Bay Community Law Center, where I continue to serve. I also have served on the predecessor board to the Justice & Diversity Center (BASF's Volunteer Legal Services Program) and on advisory committee's to JDC and Public Counsel.

Lastly, I have for the past 32 years enjoyed a deep engagement with Earthjustice (previously known as the Sierra Club Legal Defense Fund), starting with many significant impact pro bono matters and then, in 2003, as a member of its board of trustees. I served as chair of the board 2012 – 2015 and then chair emeritus. I have returned to the board (after serving a required term limited year off the board), which is very important to me, especially given the existential threats of climate change and the current Administration, and have been playing an active role in its transformative DEI initiatives.

I am truly committed to CRLA and would welcome to the opportunity to broaden that commitment through a State Bar appointment to the board.

Please feel free to follow up with any questions.

Much appreciated.

Peter Carson is a partner in the Finance & Bankruptcy Practice Group in the firm's San Francisco office.

Areas of Practice

Peter's practice is focused on representing U.S. and foreign banks, commercial finance lenders, debt funds, and other institutional lenders. Peter represents these clients in all aspects of complex secured and unsecured debt financings, including acquisition, senior syndicated, asset-based, mezzanine, second lien, bridge, debtor-in possession, credit enhancement, private placement, leveraged lease and other financings, recapitalizations, and restructurings across a range of industries, such as healthcare, technology, retail, transportation and distribution, media and telecommunications, ski resorts, sport franchises, food and beverage, agriculture, and forest products.

In addition, Peter devotes a substantial portion of his practice to representing buyers, sellers and private equity deal sponsors in various types of merger and acquisition transactions (including mergers involving nonprofits) and to advising institutional lenders, private equity and company clients on Uniform Commercial Code and other commercial law issues.

Honors

Re: Application for re-appointment to CRLA Board

Dear Ms. Yu,

It is my honor to submit this letter of interest in a re-appointment to the CRLA Board. I have served on the Board since 2016, and have thoroughly enjoyed the experience. I look forward to making a continued contribution on the Executive Committee, Retirement Committee, and in other capacities. It has been my life's work to contribute to movements for social and environmental justice, and I view CRLA as a critical organization in advancing those movements. I am enclosing my CV. Please feel free to contact me should you have any questions.

Sincerely,

/s/ Tony LoPresti

RE: Application to Serve on the Board of California Rural Legal Assistance

Dear Ms. Yu:

I write to express my strong interest in serving on the Board of Directors for California Rural Legal Assistance (CRLA). I believe my professional and pro bono experience with rural communities, my prior service on CRLA's Board, and my belief in CRLA's mission and model would enable me to serve as a strong Board member.

I have had the pleasure of serving on CRLA's Board of Directors since June 2013, where I have been a highly engaged Board member. In addition to overseeing a significant governance review and redrafting of the organization's bylaws, I have served as a member of the Board's Executive Committee and have, at different times, chaired the Board's Committee on Long-Term and Financial Planning and its Audit Committee. CRLA has done tremendous work to expand its Board capacity, and I hope to continue to contribute to those efforts.

As a clinical professor of law and legal services attorney, I have worked primarily with very low-income, rural communities in the areas of access to infrastructure, food security, and community development. I am a transactional practitioner who specializes in community-based organizations, social enterprises (nonprofits, LLCs, worker cooperatives, joint ventures) and water justice. Through those experiences, I have seen first-hand CRLA's dramatic positive impact on the lives of rural Californians. I believe that CRLA is the backbone of the State Bar's access to justice efforts, and it plays a crucial role in connecting low-income communities that are structurally excluded from local decision-making, as well as from legal services concentrated in the state's urban core.

I would be honored to dedicate time to supporting CRLA's continued growth. I would love to discuss my application further, and should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me by phone (925) 899-8383 or email (camille.pannu@gmail.com). Thank you for your consideration.

All best,

Camille Pannu

Re: Statement of Interest for CRLA Board of Directors

Dear Ms. Yu,

Susan Scott has kindly put me in touch with Jose Padilla to take her place as a CLRA board member. I was a union labor lawyer with Weinberg Roger & Rosenfeld (WRR) in Oakland from 2000 – 2010, and remember reading important legal cases brought by CLRA's team to defend the employment rights of migrants. It looks like CLRA works on a variety of other critical legal violations facing migrants, such as the right to housing, education and clean water. Of course, these rights intertwine, and I applaud CLRA's wholistic approach to protecting migrant communities.

After leaving WRR in 2010, I moved to Haiti for 8 years and was based at a Haitian public interest law firm that worked in solidarity with grassroots social movements. I joined teams of Haitian lawyers to provide direct services, litigation, advocacy, media and policy work around gender-based violence, as well as housing, employment, LGBTQ and voting rights, most of which are services provided by CRLA. My focus was leading legal advocacy campaigns with the United Nations, Inter-American Commission on Human Rights, and U.S. and Haitian policy makers to accompany Haitian litigation strategies.

Since moving back to San Francisco in 2018, I have turned my focus to immigration advocacy as the Legal Director of Haitian Bridge Alliance, a non-profit organization that advocates for fair and humane immigration policies and connects migrants with legal, social and humanitarian services, with a particular focus on black migrants, the Haitian community, women, LGBTQ individuals and survivors of torture and other human rights abuses. In addition to fundraising, I'm helping establish legal assistance programs for migrants in Tijuana and Tapachula, Mexico.

Hopefully this varied background in employment, immigration, housing and human rights advocacy can be helpful to the CRLA board. My approach to legal work is one of collaboration and solidarity. CRLA's work is not only important for migrants in rural California, it is also model of skillful solidarity work for the rest of the world.

Sincerely,

Monica Yu
Chief Development Officer
California Rural Legal Assistance, Inc.
1430 Franklin Street, Suite 103
Oakland, CA 94612

Dear Ms. Yu:

I am a litigation associate at the international law firm of Morrison & Foerster and I am interested in serving on the Board of Directors for California Rural Legal Assistance, Inc. (“CRLA”). As a Mexican American lawyer, and the grandson of an immigrant steelworker, I want to use my law degree to help provide policy recommendations in support of CRLA because of the invaluable work they do to support today’s exploited workers and rural poor. In addition to my personal interest in serving CRLA, my professional experiences have prepared me to effectively advise CRLA as a member of its Board of Directors.

In my litigation practice, I have had the privilege of advising a variety of clients on policy decisions that affect their operation and the lives of their constituents. As a Deputy Attorney General for California Attorney General Xavier Becerra, I advised the Executive Team on the H-2A temporary agricultural workers visa program. I not only utilized legal research skills, but I met with interests on both sides of the H-2A visa program issue to assess where the State of California might assert some involvement, and then proposed a policy plan. At Morrison & Foerster, I continue to counsel progressive non-profit clients on impactful policies—I am researching duty to warn laws to identify states in need of stricter gun control, and I am proposing policies on safe injection sites to prevent unnecessary overdose and death in our communities.

In addition to my professional policy work, I have experience serving on Boards of Directors. I currently serve on the Board of Directors of San Francisco La Raza Lawyers’ Association, and was Vice President of Membership on the Board, where I took on a larger role to ensure our operations reached all our members and interests. From 2017 to 2019, I also served as a member of the Young Leaders Board for a non-profit called Aim High, which provides free summer school to underprivileged youth in the Bay Area. In each role, I provided guidance to the organization to further its missions and values.

I am eager to contribute to CRLA’s mission of fighting for justice and individual rights for the rural poor as a member of its Board of Directors. I am available at your convenience; please feel free to contact me at (562) 746-3571 or robert.sandoval@outlook.com.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Robert S. Sandoval

Re: LETTER OF INTEREST FOR REAPPOINTMENT TO CRLA'S BOARD

Dear Ms. Ngim:

In 2018, I was appointed by the State Bar of California to the board of directors of California Rural Legal Assistance's (CRLA). I am honored and humbled by the thought of being reappointed to CRLA's board. I desire to serve and be a part of CRLA in its fight and struggle for justice because I aspire to be a part of something permanent, magnificent, and righteous. I am inspired by CRLA's 50-year legacy of standing up to social injustices, fighting for civil and minority rights, and shining a spotlight on everyday inequalities that confront "the most exploited communities of our society."

I believe in CRLA's mission "To fight for justice and individual rights alongside the most exploited communities of our society." My life's mission statement is to "be like Jesus, Moses, Mother Teresa, Cesar Chavez, or Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., to the least of us", which resonates with CRLA's mission.

I am an ideal member for the CRLA's board due to my upbringing and life's work. I was born and raised in the farm working communities (Sacramento and Modesto) of the Central Valley. My father, an honored veteran and an active member with the NAACP for more years than I can remember, instilled in me at an early age the importance of giving back to my community and of advocating for the voiceless, powerless, and victims.

I graduated from U.C. Hastings College of the Law in 1999 and became a personal injury attorney. I help accident victims and their families when they have been injured, harmed or inconvenienced by the fault of others. I have assisted in and achieved numerous six-figure and million dollar settlements and awards. Litigating on behalf of injury victims and their families is the very essence of my practice.

Given my upbringing, passion, and mission to serve others, I have also represented indigent and pro-bono clients from "all walks of life" and have significant experience working with "the most exploited communities of our society".

Ms. Sharon Ngim
State Bar of California,
Office of Legal Services

In 2006 my twin brother, Jacque Wilson, a well-respected San Francisco Public Defender, and I founded Advocates For Justice (AFJ). AFJ is an advocacy group that was created to give a voice to the voiceless in a way that was never before possible. We serve all children, as well as their families, who feel unneeded, unwanted, and unloved. We provide a voice to children with discipline problems, foster students, students with disabilities, disadvantaged youth, poor kids, and struggling students from farm working communities.

In 2019, at the request of Assembly Member Chris Holden (Assembly District 41), I testified before the California Assembly Education Committee on AB 982: Homework assignments for suspended pupils. I was also asked to give testimony on AB 982 for the Senate Committee of Health.

I continue to be humbled and honored when the people and organizations I've helped in their struggles and fight for justice call me to tell me they received the justice they expected, read their experience in the newspaper, or saw their story on television. Over the years I have discovered that many people or organizations that had experienced injustice or had been exploited simply wanted their story told so that others could learn from their stories and avoid making the same or similar mistakes. I have attached to this "Letter of Interest" a few links to articles and videos of people and organizations that AFJ has worked with or helped in the past. Like CRLA, AFJ provides legal services, help, and hope to the most vulnerable in our communities.

With regards to my lifetime commitment to my community, I have received numerous community service awards for pro bono work on racial and educational justice. Please see my attached resume.

Of course, if you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me at attyjacq@yahoo.com, (415) 563-2111 – office, or (415) 608-9579 - cell.

Thank you in advance for your time, consideration, and for helping me "be the change I hope to create." I look forward to being reappointed to CRLA's board and to contributing its storied legacy.

Your friend and advocate,

Jacq M. Wilson, Esq.
