EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 9.31, State Bar staff request permission to administratively enroll all members of MCLE Compliance Group 2 (last names H-M) who have not complied with the MCLE requirement by July 2, 2012, as involuntary inactive members and place them on “Not Eligible to Practice” status effective July 3, 2012. Please note that unlike the procedure for suspending members for non-payment of fees, this action only requires approval by the Board of Trustees or its designee. This item also authorizes staff to remove members from involuntary inactive status once the member has provided proof of compliance and paid all non-compliance fees.

BACKGROUND

By May 2, 2012, staff will have sent MCLE Noncompliance 60-Day Notices to members of Compliance Group 2 (last names beginning with H-M when assigned to the compliance group) who have not complied with their MCLE requirement. Prior to the May notice, members of Compliance Group 2 were contacted by mail on at least two separate occasions: December 1, 2011, and March 7, 2012.

Those members of Compliance Group 2 who had provided The State Bar of California with an e-mail address also received e-mailed reminders in November 2011 and January 2012. A third email reminder will be sent in May 2012.

During the first week of June 2012, staff will send a “Final Notice” by certified mail to the members of Compliance Group 2, who have not complied with the MCLE requirement.

Those members will also receive a courtesy call at their telephone number of record by June 22, 2012. Those members of Compliance Group 2 that have still not complied with the MCLE requirement as of July 2, 2012, will be moved to “Not Eligible” status effective July 3, 2012.

BOARD AUTHORITY

The Supreme Court has delegated to the Bar the authority to administratively enroll members of the State Bar who fail to comply with the MCLE requirement on involuntary inactive status. Rule 9.31, California Rules of Court, provides that any member of the State Bar who fails to satisfy the requirements of the State Bar’s minimum continuing legal education program be enrolled as an inactive member under rules adopted by the Board.

Pursuant to Rule 9.31, the Board adopted the MCLE Rules and Regulations, which are now incorporated within the Rules of the State Bar (“Rules”). The Rules establish the procedures for noncompliance with the MCLE requirement. Rule 2.32(A) of the Rules provides that “A member who fails to meet requirements for Minimum Continuing Legal Education (MCLE) will be involuntarily enrolled as inactive.” Rule 2.92 of the Rules provides that “A member who fails to comply with a notice of noncompliance is enrolled as inactive and is not eligible to practice law. The enrollment is administrative and no hearing is required. ”

Please note that the procedure for placing members on involuntary inactive status for failure to comply with the MCLE requirement is unlike the procedure for suspending members for non-payment of membership fees. For MCLE, the Supreme Court has delegated to the Bar the authority to change members’ status. In the case of non-payment of membership fees, the Board submits a list to the Supreme Court for action.

The Rules define noncompliance to include failure to report compliance or claim exempt status, and/or failure to pay all noncompliance fees (Rule 2.90.) As members bring themselves into compliance, staff removes them from the noncompliance list. Only members who do not bring themselves into compliance by the final deadline of July 2, 2012, will be placed on inactive status. (A member placed on inactive status for failure to comply with the MCLE requirement is not eligible to practice law while on such status.)

A list of members in noncompliance with their MCLE requirement will be available upon request at the board meeting.
