

ATTACHMENT B to NOV 134
Rules of the State Bar
(Amendments for Board approval, November 16, 2012)

1. 9/8/2012
Self
Perry Segal
Support
Great benefit to members of CA Bar-opening up additional & necessary avenues of education
2. 9/7/2012
LPMT
William Hoffman
Support
Revisions eliminate ambiguity and clarify that programming geared towards educating attorney in essential management and technology skills. Rule change may encourage MCLE providers to develop more offerings in key practice management and technology areas thereby increasing resources available to attorneys to assist them in meeting professional responsibilities and supports the Bar's mission of public protection.
3. 9/6/2012
Orange County Bar Assn
Dimetia Jackson
Support
Agrees with the proposed amendments to the MCLE standards
4. 9/5/2012
LPMT
Shahrad Milanfar
Support
MCLE system should include courses that teach attorneys integrity and practice business skills. As a mediator he has attempted to obtain credit courses in stress management and mediation. These courses serve to clarify the scope of MCLE requirements to include programs and activities that relate directly to the management and operation of a members law office and mediation training
5. 8/9/2012
Self
Herb Rubenstein
Support
Enables members to have access to excellent leadership training.
6. 8/3/2012
Self
Paul J. Dubow
Support
Allows mediators to receive MCLE credit for the education courses

7. 8/2/2012
Self
Michael Marx
Support
Supports the rule change to allow MCLE credit for mediation training
8. 7/30/2012
San Diego County Bar Association
Support
New rule eliminates confusion and allows for MCLE credit in law office management topics.
9. 7/30/2012
Self
Matthew Geyer
Support
Supports the rule change to allow MCLE credit for mediation training
10. 7/27/2012
Self
Malcom Sher
Support
Supports the rule change to allow MCLE credit for mediation training
11. 7/27/2012
Self
Herman Papa
Support
Supports the rule change to allow MCLE credit for mediation training