

RULES OF THE STATE BAR

(Amendment shown in legislative style, for public comment, May 9, 2013)

Title 4. Admissions And Educational Standards; Division 1. Admission To Practice Law In California; Chapter 2. Overview Of Admission Requirements

Rule 4.15 Certification to California Supreme Court

To be eligible for certification to the California Supreme Court for admission to the practice of law, an applicant for admission must:

- (A) be at least eighteen years of age;
- (B) file an Application for Admission with the Committee;
- (C) meet the requirements of these rules regarding education or admission as an attorney in another jurisdiction, determination of moral character, and examinations;
- (D) be in compliance with California court-ordered child or family support obligations pursuant to Family Code § 17520;

Inserted Text Begin be in compliance with tax obligations pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 494.5;[Inserted Text End]

(~~[Deleted Text Begin]E[Deleted Text End]~~[Inserted Text Begin]F[Inserted Text End]) until admitted to the practice of law, notify the Committee within thirty days of any change in information provided on an application; and

(~~[Deleted Text Begin]F[Deleted Text End]~~[Inserted Text Begin]G[Inserted Text End]) otherwise meet statutory criteria for certification to the Supreme Court.¹

¹ Business & Professions Code § 6060.