

August 3, 2022 Laurie Zelon to CTJG:

Both text and the form should require disclosure not just of the potential existence of funded legal services, but also a list of organizations in the geographic area with contact information. This would expand this existing sentence: “ Additionally, sandbox providers may be required to include a disclosure advising clients that a free attorney through local legal services organizations may be available to those who qualify [and providing a list of organizations in the geographic area with contact information.”
