

August 3, 2022 Laurie Zelon to CTJG:

As we consider option 1, can we also consider only allowing the lawyer not to be a member of the organization for organizations below a certain size? That way, we limit the possibility of information being unavailable to a reviewing lawyer who has no formal relationship to the group, but recognize that some groups may be too small to have someone on staff.