

Proposed amendments regarding LSX results to Legal Specialization rule 3.116 (redline)Rule 3.116 Examination

(A) An applicant must pay an examination registration fee and take and pass a written examination that tests knowledge of the substantive law and procedures of a legal specialty. The State Bar determines the scope, format, topics, grading process, and passing score of the examination.

(B) Results

(1) reported to applicants are final; and

(2) are valid for five years from the date of the exam.

(C) Applicants are not entitled to receive their examination answers.

(D) Successful applicants are not entitled~~or~~ to see their scores.

~~(E)~~ Upon approval of a new area of legal specialization by the Board of Trustees, the State Bar may approve for a period of no more than two years satisfactory completion of one or more alternative tasks in lieu of a written examination.

Proposed amendments regarding LSX results to Legal Specialization rule 3.116 (clean version)Rule 3.116 Examination

(A) An applicant must pay an examination registration fee and take and pass a written examination that tests knowledge of the substantive law and procedures of a legal specialty. The State Bar determines the scope, format, topics, grading process, and passing score of the examination.

(B) Results

(1) reported to applicants are final; and

(2) are valid for five years from the date of the exam.

(C) Applicants are not entitled to receive their examination answers.

(D) Successful applicants are not entitled to see their scores.

(E) Upon approval of a new area of legal specialization by the Board of Trustees, the State Bar may approve for a period of no more than two years satisfactory completion of one or more alternative tasks in lieu of a written examination.